

I'll be that Friend,
A one that holds you
A one that scolds you
A one that loves you

I'll be that Friend
To trust to tell you
In hope to build you
Strong and Wise

I'll be that Friend

Verse 1:

I must keep on moving
Knowing it is crazy times we live
Feeling a little empty
Wondering if life is more than this

I've been someone to run to
Someone to talk to, someone a friend
You need someone whose gone through
Someone who wants to, someone a friend

And I have to admit I'm not super human
I have to admit sometimes I need a hand
I have to admit I have no clue sometimes
I have to admit I can be that friend

Chorus:

I'll be that Friend,

A one that holds you
A one that scolds you
A one that loves you

I'll be that Friend
To trust to tell you
In hope to build you
Strong and Wise

I'll be that Friend

Verse 2:

Logic is looking senseless
You must be afraid of what you feel
Drama is getting heartless
Pondering on how it makes you feel

I've been someone to run to
Someone to talk to, someone a friend
You need someone whose gone through
Someone who wants to, someone a friend

And I have to admit I'm not super human
I have to admit sometimes I need a hand
I have to admit I have no clue sometimes
I have to admit I can be that friend

Chorus:

I'll be that Friend,
A one that holds you

A one that loves you

I'll be that Friend

To trust to tell you

In hope to build you

Strong and Wise

I'll be that Friend
